

National Human Rights Consultation Submission

AGWW-7MC4KD

Name: Peta Holmes

Submission Text:

I am really happy to live in this democratic and egalitarian society that we have built in Australia. I think that is about time that we formalise those values in a human rights act so that they can be upheld by us and our leaders into the future. It's really quite embarrassing that we haven't done so already.