

National Human Rights Consultation Submission

AGWW-7PF2CJ

Name: susan robinson

Submission Text:

Protection from bullying, particularly in educational institutions and in the workplace should be included. This is an important issue when the bullying is designed to eliminate a person from their workplace or school with a result that their access to earn a livelihood or education is severely impaired. Related to this is malicious damaging of the reputation that results in impairment to the employment or employability of a person.