Submission Text:

I would have liked to attend the session at the Duxton Hotel in Perth on 12 September 2009 to talk about the following, but according to your web site the session is unfortunately booked out.

Last week this disgusting piece of racist garbage was made here in Perth, just a short distance from the Duxton Hotel, and remains on the net-

This is Perth, May 2009 - not Berlin, May 1939.

I am beyond offended. I am a Jewish Australian and am proud of being both Australian and Jewish. I am a tribunal member and spend my professional life seeking to provide justice to the Western Australian community.

It is simply beyond belief that this video can be posted on the internet in this country without being vetted, that it remains on the internet, and that the racist who proudly proclaims his name and bashes another Jewish Australian on the video remains at large to offend and bash others. I am very concerned for the safety of my family and my community. In Perth in 2009, I should not have to be.

It is appropriate and timely that you are holding this session in Perth this week. Please show and discuss the video at the session as you could not imagine something that makes more of a mockery of "human rights" than this filth.

Yours sincerely

David Parry
